

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals who have chosen Missouri as a place to expand their educational and cultural horizons; and

Whereas, the members now pause to recognize Zhong “Sandra” Shan, a twenty-two-year-old student at Missouri State University-West Plains; and

Whereas, before studying at Missouri State University-West Plains, Sandra Shan attended Liaoning Normal University (LNU), which has a cooperative program with Missouri State University-West Plains; and

Whereas, Sandra Shan is from Shen Yang, in the Liaoning Province of China, and she is studying business and has plans to pursue her studies in business after finishing her studies at Missouri State University-West Plains; and

Whereas, Missouri State University-West Plains is a public, two-year, open admission, separately accredited campus of the Missouri State University System with over seventeen hundred students enrolled in both part-time and full-time studies; and

Whereas, West Plains is a city of 10,800 in the Ozarks Heritage region of southern Missouri:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to welcome to Sandra Shan to the state of Missouri and to wish her every success in her studies and in all her future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Zhong “Sandra” Shan.
